FIM Sidecar Motocross World Championship

2021 Provisional Calendar, UPDATE 24 March

Due to the impact of the ongoing Coronavirus disease (COVID-19), the FIM, the Championship Promoter APO Multimedia, the local organisers, the Ukrainian (FMU), French (FFM), Dutch (KNMV), Slovenian (AMZS) and Czech (ACCR) Motorcycling Federations have been forced to make the following changes to the 2021 provisional calendar.

- The Czech round originally set to take place in Kramolin on 13 June is now postponed until 10 October.
- The events scheduled on 16 May in Bucha (UKR), on 23 May in Brou (FRA), on 20 June in Markelo (NED) and 05 September in Orehova Vas (SLO) are cancelled.

All parties are already looking to reschedule these events for 2022. More information will be communicated in due course.

The FIM would like to thank the promoter, the national Federations and local organisers for their hard work and efforts during this difficult period.

About the FIM (www.fim-moto.com): The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 115 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
